

Kaw Mission State Historic Site

Hello the House!

2 p.m. Sunday, February 9, 2014

See a theatrical performance by the Shawnee Indian Mission Performers. Hello the House! is a dramatic play about Shawnee Indian Mission founder the Reverend Thomas Johnson on the night he was murdered in 1865. Johnson's murder remains an unsolved mystery. Following the performance, Anita Faddis, site administrator of Shawnee Indian Mission State Historic Site, will present the history of the Shawnee mission.

Performance immediately follows the annual general membership meeting of the Friends of Kaw Heritage, Inc.

Refreshments provided by the Friends of Kaw Heritage, Inc.

Admission is $3 adults, $1 students. Kansas Historical Foundation members and children five and younger admitted free.
